Gluon CloudLink is priced per month (with annual subscriptions available also), with each application requiring its own Gluon CloudLink instance. Therefore, for each application, simply select the tier that suits the needs of your application, and sign up!

All subscription tiers require a valid credit card to create the subscription, but no charges will be made against the card until 30 days after the subscription is started. This enables time to evaluate the service. Cancelling the subscription before 30 days will result in no charges being made at all.

If your needs are particularly custom or critical, you should contact Gluon to discuss your requirements. We can tailor a custom solution to suit your needs.
